Depiction of Marine Areas
Clear regions on this map depict areas where Australia exercises water column, seabed and subsoil jurisdiction, seabed and subsoil jurisdiction only, or fisheries jurisdiction only, as defined in certain treaties.
Light pink shading depicts areas submitted and yet to be resolved (including Australian Antarctic Territory where Australia requested the Commission on the Limits of the Continental Shelf not consider this region for the time being).
Light white shading depicts areas beyond Australian jurisdiction.

QUALIFICATIONS RELATING TO THIS MAP
1. This map is indicative only of the location of the outer limits of Australia's exclusive economic zone and continental shelf and should not be used as a definitive source of information. Some limits may be subject to change.
2. Australia's exclusive economic zone and continental shelf are established under the Seas and Submerged Lands Act 1973.
3. Certain limits and boundaries are established under various treaties with neighbouring States (not all are in force).
4. This map has been prepared taking into account the negotiations of Australia under the Timor Sea Treaty and the Treaty with Timor-Leste concerning Certain Maritime Arrangements in the Timor Sea. Therefore, the map does not present all areas in which Australia may assert a continental shelf jurisdiction.
5. In the event of an inconsistency between this map, and the limits established under Australian legislation or the treaties, then the legislative instruments or the treaties shall prevail.
6. Except as required by law, the Commonwealth will not be liable for any loss, damage, expense or cost (including any incidental or consequential loss or damage) incurred by any person or organisation arising out of use of, or reliance on, this map.
