

AUSTRALIA CROPLANDS

For the year ended 31 March 1976

- |                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| EXTENSIVE CROPPING <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• 5000 hectaresWheat, barley, oats, sorghum, maize harvested for grainSunflower, linseed, rape, safflower, lupins</li> </ul> | INTENSIVE CROPPING <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• 2000 hectaresSugar cane, cotton, rice, peanuts, soybeans</li> <li>• 1000 hectaresFruit, grapes, vegetables, tobacco</li> </ul> |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

SOURCES

Based on statistics for local government or equivalent areas from the Australian Bureau of Statistics and an interpretation of Landsat imagery for 'Land Use' (1979), scale 1:5 000 000, of this Atlas.

Produced for the topic 'Crops' in the volume Agriculture of the Atlas of Australian Resources 3rd Series
Division of National Mapping, Canberra
© Commonwealth of Australia 1979

Printed by C.J. Thompson, Commonwealth Government Printer, Canberra

SCALE 1:10 000 000
 Kilometres 100 0 100 200 300 400 Kilometres
 SIMPLE CONIC PROJECTION WITH TWO STANDARD PARALLELS (18°S AND 36°S)